

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

The water main down Union street is being laid as fast as possible.

Willis Hendrix, a prominent farmer of Dufur, was in town Tuesday.

The recorder has furnished his office at his own expense with a splendid new desk.

An electric light has been placed in position at the Regulator landing on the beach.

Jack McIntosh, a prominent baseball player of Umatilla county, has fallen heir to a fortune of $10,000.

The plans have arrived for the new Methodist church. It will be much larger and more conveniently arranged than the old one.

The steamer Baker landed for the first time, last Saturday at the portage incline, with one passenger. Up till then she used to land in the mud a little above.

The band boys have already ordered their instruments from New York. They are expected in about two weeks.

The horns are the latest improved in triple silver and the drums are also the latest improved with nickel rims and gilt trimmings.

Six young ninnies went down the river yesterday duck hunting but we are of the opinion that the ducks must have flown high or else the powder became wet and the guns wouldn't go off as they did not come back with a boat load.

The boys, however, say they mortally wounded several mud-hens.

The handsomest and finest stock of dry goods in this city, by long odds, that of H. Herberling's. As everything is new and fresh and the most fashionable in the market, ladies wanting goods of this class will find it to their interest to call on him.

From Mr. S. L. Brooks, who returned from a trip over the D. P. & A. N. Co.'s line last evening, we learn that the company is doing much more business below the Cascades than above.

The farmers on the Washington side of the river are patronizing the new line almost to a man, and load the boat down every day.

It is thought that it will be necessary to put on another boat on the lower river in order to carry all the freight that is offered.

McFarland & French have filled their show window with sample lots of their goods marked down below any prices that ever prevailed in this city.

Men's overalls are marked at 50 cents. Shaker socks $1.40 a dozen, all wool socks $1.25 a dozen, seamless cotton socks at 99 cents a dozen.

There is a large heap of children's shoes, all sizes, at $1.25 a pair, ladies' scarlet undergarments at 99 cents and ladies' fine gray wool underwear at 90 cents each.

A CHRONICLE man called on Joseph Knebel, the young man who was stabbed by Moreton in Lemke's saloon Sunday night. He is resting comfortably considering the wound which was inflicted with a pocket knife on his left breast, making a cut about three inches in depth.

The knife blade entered the lung and Knebel in consequence, finds it rather difficult to breathe. According to his statement the trouble which led to the cutting was a dispute over a dollar, which Moreton claimed was due him from Knebel, while Knebel insisted that Moreton owed him four dollars.

The result was the wounding of Knebel. Knebel is at the Columbia hotel where he is well cared for. Moreton's bail was set at $1000 by Justice Schantz, in default of which he was committed to the county jail to await the action of the grand jury.

From Eight Mile. EIGHT MILE, Oct. 13, 1901. Editor of the Chronicle.

A few items from Eight Mile may be acceptable. The sound of the thrasher is now seldom heard in the land, its work being much lighter than usual.

The hot east winds of July told us sternly on the quality and quantity of the wheat crop. The plucky farmer has already commenced seeding, hoping to be able, as of yore, to reap a bountiful harvest.

The hard times have not prevented the erection of several new dwellings in our locality. This is said to imply that two or three most interesting events will follow in the near future.

Some of our alliance friends are anticipating a good time attending the county alliance meeting, to be held at Hood River, October 13th.

Night is made hideous pretty much all over the land by the festive coyote. He lays heavy tribute on the farmer and stockman. No family hereabout can begin to afford such a luxurious table as the aforesaid coyote. Some farmers on Eight Mile lose over 100 fowls a year by this miserable epidemic.

He spares neither age nor sex. The young, the old, the middle-aged, seem alike toothsome to him. The elderly fowls are quite discouraged and inquire, "Why is it thus?" The writer would suggest that a bounty on coyote scalps is the remedy and would tend to keep the price of eggs at moderate figures.

FARMER. Advertiser Letters. The following is the list of letters remaining in The Dalles postoffice unclaimed for Saturday, Oct. 17, 1901.

Persons calling for these letters will please give the date on which they were advertised: Adams, Chas. Alexander, Bush Cross, Perry (4) Graham, Wm. Notes for Farmers to Crack. A short time ago George Smith and Richard Galt of Klickitat county came to Mr. Wheelton of this city and asked him what show there would be to obtain the exclusive right to use the land belonging to the Interstate Company near the Rockland landing, for handling and shipping grain.

These gentlemen with others were appointed by the grangers of Klickitat county to attend to this matter and to see that the grain they could come this way, but if the privilege had to be divided up between themselves and others they were not willing to embark in the enterprise.

A contract was then entered into by which the Interstate Company guaranteed the exclusive right desired. About the time the contract was completed, and in the grey of a Sunday morning, an old scow belonging to Z. F. Moody was conveyed across the river and anchored at the landing directly in front of where the shute is now placed, while a pair of grain scales were placed on the bluff.

When Mr. Wheelton learned what had been done he called on M. A. Moody and told him that the Interstate Company had guaranteed to the farmers of Klickitat county the exclusive privilege of using the landing and to the Regulator the exclusive right to land there.

The upshot of this interview was that Wheelton bought the Moody scow and Mr. Moody vacated the place. Then a shute was built which Mr. Smith has since used in connection with the scow to ship the grain purchased on the Regulator.

In the early part of the present week the announcement was made that the Baker was to be withdrawn from the river traffic, as it is well-known she has been doing nothing since the Regulator started. But the announcement was scarcely made till it was revoked.

The revocation followed immediately after the appearance in this city of the general freight agent of the Union Pacific, Mr. Campbell. Then an effort was made to purchase from Mr. Smith the 2000 sacks of grain he has stacked near the landing.

More than it would possibly bring at Portland by five or six cents a bushel, with freight by the U. P. added, was offered but Mr. Smith refused to sell unless it would be shipped by the Regulator.

The next move occurred yesterday when M. A. Moody placed a pair of scales at the Rockland ferry, and prepared to buy wheat, offering more than Smith till the present. The scales being again on the Interstate company's land on the east side of the landing, Mr. Wheelton informed Mr. Moody that he must remove them. Moody then broke down a fence erected by the Dalles, Portland & Astoria Navigation company, around a landing secured to them by lease from Mr. Curtis.

Here Moody holds the fort today and the end is not yet. That this is a move to cripple the Regulator, and in the interest of the Union Pacific, is as plain as that the heavens are stretched over the earth and that M. A. Moody is being used by the company for this purpose is equally clear.

The CHRONICLE will watch the progress of events with interest and relate them, without fear or favor, as they occur.

Facts are Chicle That Winna Ding. The wheat situation on the Washington side of the river is intensely interesting and exciting.

Geo. Smith had the market all to himself till the general freight agent of the Union Pacific company came up to The Dalles and spent two days here closting a good deal of the time with the Moody's.

Then the other previously given to tie up the Baker was countermanded and any one with half sense knew something was going to happen.

Then an effort was made to buy Smith's wheat at two or three cents a bushel more than he could get for it by shipping at the lower rates of the Regulator, not say by the Union Pacific. Smith refused to sell the wheat unless it should be shipped by the Regulator.

The man who made the offer, J. H. Larsen says he was buying it for his brother, and Mr. Larsen is an honorable man, but the wheat was not taken on this condition notwithstanding that the rates of the Regulator are between four and five cents a bushel lower than the Union Pacific.

Whether it was Mr. Larsen buying for himself or for his brother in Portland or as many believe, and with good reason, Mr. Larsen was buying for Moody, it is all the same. The party at the back of the scheme was the Union Pacific and the intention was and is to cripple the Regulator.

When Smith refused to sell the wheat unless it should be shipped by the Regulator, M. A. Moody, immediately placed a pair of scales at the Washington side of the Rockland ferry, and there today he is buying wheat in opposition to George Smith and paying eighty-five cents a bushel for it. The price of such wheat in Portland is eighty-seven cents. It costs ten and two-fifths cents to ship it to Portland by the Union Pacific. Who foots the bill? The Union Pacific, without a shadow of a doubt, and Moody is, as he has always been, the obsequious tool of the company.

The only way Smith could bid, as he did today, eighty-four and one-fourth cents, is by an agreement with the Regulator company to carry the wheat for nothing. We have no authority for saying this, but anyone not a positive idiot must infer as much. Smith has no money to lose and Moody has none either. It is the interest of the Union Pacific to tie up the Regulator off the river. They are willing to lose money to do it and Moody is also willing to sell himself to the company for a little coin against the best interests of the city where he makes his bread and against the best interests of the country where he and his family made every dollar they own. This is the charge we make. Not that Mr. Moody, father or son, has not a right ordinarily to buy wheat anywhere or in competition with anybody, but the man who is so low down as to compete under the present circumstances—as the tool of the Union Pacific—is low enough for anything.

At Waukie, in this county on Saturday evening the 17th instant the wife of Mr. Simon Mason of that place, aged about 65 years. Mrs. Mason was a most estimable christian woman a good neighbor and an affectionate wife and mother and her departure will leave a blank in the settlement not easily filled. The sympathy of the community will go out to her bereaved and aged husband.

that the State Board of Immigration are fitting up a special railroad car to be filled with Oregon products which it is their intention to send to the Eastern and interior states for the purpose of advertising the resources of this great state. The work of fitting up and painting the car is now complete and its interior is now being filled with exhibits.

The best of those shown at the exposition which has just closed will be selected and as many others as can find accommodation. The writer visited the car yesterday at Albina. It is of ordinary length and is fitted upon each side with shelving that rises like steps from the floor to the ceiling. A three foot alley runs along each side, runs through the full length of the car. The car is furnished with a complete electric light plant of its own which will furnish 25 lights inside and 12 outside. The exhibits will consist of grain threshed and unthreshed, grasses, fruits, vegetables and berries dried, canned, and green, wool, coal and minerals of all kinds and samples of Oregon woods. 50,000 samples of Oregon wheat done up in small bottles will be given away. Half a million of 4 by 6 inch dodgers will be distributed and Major Ed. A. Weed, an old newspaper man, and a 17 years resident in the state, who will have charge of the car, will deliver lectures at every convenient place, from the platform of the habes corpus cases in the interest of Julius Moskowitz, Isidore Brenner, and Morris Glick, Russian Jews, charged with a breach of the peace in distributing anarchistic circulars, making incendiary speeches and inciting riot. The officers testified as to their utterances at a meeting. They advised their hearers not to believe in God, not to fear the killed. Judge Biddle declared that he had no doubt that the preaching of their doctrines was seditious. These foreigners came to this country voluntarily, and the first thing they did was to attack our institutions. They were enemies to the human race. He held all for trial.

A Gobbler Sits On a Melon. Mr. James Grier, who lives about five miles east of Dawson, has a turkey gobbler that is a curiosity. Mr. Grier's turkeys consisted of two hens and the gobbler. The hens made nests about seventy-five yards apart in Mr. Grier's melon patch, laid their nests full of eggs and went to setting. The gobbler got lonely and concluded that the proper thing for him to do was to set also. He got an equal distance between the two turkey hens, squatted over a genuine watermelon and sat six weeks before he was discovered. Mr. Grier thought his gobbler had been stolen, and was utterly astonished when he found him in the patch trying to hatch out young watermelons. —Enquirer-Sun.

Whiskey Claims Another. About two o'clock last Friday, the sound of a pistol shot was heard coming from one of the bedrooms of the Cosmopolitan Hotel. A clerk ran up to room 43 where he found a man lying on the floor besides the bed while the blood gushed from a wound directly in the middle of his forehead and his brains scattered on the carpet. A 44 caliber six shooter lay beside him with three of the chambers empty. A nearly full flask of whiskey was on the stand at the bed head and the smell emanating from the unconscious form of the suicide indicated that the man must have been under the influence of liquor when he died. Enquiry soon discovered the fact that the man's name was Lacey and that he came to the The Dalles from Antelope county where he has been engaged at sheep herding and other similar employment for the past two years. He has been in the city since last Saturday, all the time drinking more or less heavily. He claimed yesterday to one of our citizens that he had lost $100 since his arrival in gambling. A letter was found on his person which read as follows:

OFFICE OF J. H. McDONOUGH. THE DALLES, OR., Oct. 16, 1901. To whom it may interest: The saying that no one commits suicide unless temporarily insane I think can be refuted in my case. The problem of existence is too much for me or I am for it, which amounts to the same thing. Whiskey has been my master for years and the longer I live the more absolute its control is. I have not the will power to resist it, so I am going to take this means of putting an end of a life that I have lost all interest in. I hope there is a merciful God as my christian friends tell me, that he will not inquire too closely into a mispent life. My relation to you is as follows:

There is None Better. Dr. R. L. St. John of Howland, Putnam county, Missouri, takes especial pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, because he knows it to be reliable. He has used it in his practice for several years, and says there is none better. It is especially valuable for colds and as a preventative and cure for croup. children saved from death in croup or whooping cough by the use of onions than any other known remedy. Our mothers used to make poultices of them or a syrup, which was always effective in breaking up a cough or cold. Dr. Gunn's Onion Syrup is made by combining a few simple remedies with which we make it more effective as a medicine and destroys the taste and odor of the onion. Sold by Blakeley & Houghton.

A Favorite Remedy. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a favorite during the winter months on account of its great success in the cure of colds. There is nothing that will loosen a severe cold so quickly, or as promptly relieve the lungs. Then it counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. It is pleasant and safe to take, and fully worthy of its popularity. For sale by Snipes & Kinerly, The Dalles, Or. d-w
